GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

While at Memphis last Thursday, looking over his local thoroughbreds, Capt. S. S. Brown remarked to a friend: "If my sight into the future is not terribly mistaken. I will win three western Derbys next season." Captain Brown did not name the races he imagined were already his, but he has instructed his trainer, Robert Tucker, to get Proceeds, Auditor, Audience and Conjurer ready for early racing. Captain Brown has his heart set on winning the Kentucky Derby. His colors have never finished in front for that event, although he did own a part interest in the colt Buchanan, when that horse won for Cottrell in 1884. Captain Brown's famous racer Blue Wing, was beaten by Ben Ali, with J. B. Haggin's colors aboard, in the Kentucky Derby renewal of 1886, and that was the nearest the "brown and cherry cap" has come to victory. In Proceeds, Captain Brown is represented by one of the greatest mud lovers ever seen on the western turf. In Auditor he owns a high-class colt that won nine races and over $9,000 during the past season, and only finished outside the money but three times during nineteen starts. In Conjurer, which won the second half of the Double Event in the east, Captain Brown is also represented by a stake winner, and in Audience horsemen agree that he is ably represented by a filly that will probably win her share of western stakes offered exclusively for turf misses.

"W. F. Schulte, ex-president of the New Louisville Jockey Club, is going to make a supreme effort to win the Kentucky Derby next spring," says the Louisville Courier Journal of Dec. 18. "Mr. Schulte has had considerable experience in Louisville turf matters, sufficient, in fact, to take the sentiment out of him. At least, this is what his friends claim, but regardless of this he, like nearly all the other turfmen in this section wants to put a Kentucky Derby victory to his credit. The colt with which Mr. Schulte expects to win the Kentucky classic is Batts, now two-year-old, which ran a number of good races in the east during the past season. He is a handsome looking bay colt by Florist—Fannie Willoughby, and is now in winter quarters at Churchill Downs, where ex-President Schulte has a large string of horses which will be put in training after January 1. 'I would rather win the Kentucky Derby than any race on the American turf,' said Mr. Schulte yesterday afternoon. 'This is said with the knowledge that the World's Fair Handicap at St. Louis next year will be worth $50,000; that the American Derby at Chicago next June will be worth $25,000 or more, and that there are such races as the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps. Why this is so I do not know, but, like all other turfmen, I want to win the Kentucky Derby, and my colt Batts will be especially pointed for this race, which will be run May 2. The colt has grown considerably since last spring and I think he will be one of the best three-year-olds in the country next year. He is tall, strong and rangy, with remarkable muscular development, and as he showed an abundance of speed during the season which has just ended, I see no reason why he should not be heard from in 1904. At any rate, he will be especially prepared for the Kentucky Derby.'"

"Sixteen thoroughbreds belonging to Barney Schreiber's stable arrived at Ascot Park yesterday afternoon, having left Ingleside track, San Francisco, Sunday night," says the Los Angeles Express of Dec. 15. "The horses are in good shape, and are now quartered in the stables on the west side of those occupied by 'Boots' Durnell's speedy racers. Schreiber is particular when it comes to transporting his thoroughbreds from one track to another. He has a scheme of his own in the matter of stock cars. A baggage car is used, and this is arranged according to the most comfortable methods, and Schreiber's horses always arrive fresh and in good shape because of the care given them. Trainer Dick Williams is in charge of the string, and it is reported that Schreiber will have at least two books at Ascot Park during the racing. Williams says there will be a big shipment of horses from Ingleside track after the close of the meeting there. This meeting continues only fifteen days, then the scene shifts to Oakland again, and many of the owners will find it more satisfactory to come here than to cross the bay. Manager Brooks has sent word to horse owners at Ingleside that those intending to ship here should apply for stalls in advance. The demand for these is so great that in the north it is thought to denote a banner meeting."

Pat Dunne lost a highly prized horse last week when Toah died at Ascot Park. This little chestnut gelding was a son of Bassetlaw—Modesty, the latter being the first American Derby winner. Toah has been a consistent winner since his two-year-old form and has won at all distances from five furlongs to a mile and one-sixteenth, having several stake victories to his credit. In 1900 he started his racing career at Tanforan as a two-year-old, and since then has won at Memphis, Louisville and many times around Chicago. As a four-year-old his earnings were in excess of $10,000, and the total to the time of his death is placed at about $18,000. Ed Corrigan, uncle of Mr. Dunne, bred the horse in Sacramento county, California.

Jockey Higgins, fresh from St. Louis, is now at New Orleans. Higgins is in first-class shape and ready to accept mounts. Archie Zimmer was to have managed Higgins this winter. Jockey Fuller, who is under contract to Zimmer, is due at New Orleans today, and this may mean that Higgins will have to secure another manager.

Profiting by the experience with Advance Guard, it is assured that Hermis will receive light exercise all through the cold weather. Advance Guard was turned out in the fall of 1902, and it was not until the following spring that he was taken up and seriously prepared for the races. The good son of Great Tom had filled up greatly in his idleness and proved unequal to the severe drilling that was necessary in the spring. The result was that he broke down, and was never brought to the post during the season that is just closed. Hermis was a late horse this year, but if the plan outlined is carried out it is promised that he will not be so late when the season of 1904 rolls around.

Ed. A. Tipton, manager of the Fasig-Tipton Sales Company, of New York, has made arrangements to establish offices in Lexington to carry on the sales of thoroughbred horses annually in Kentucky. Stewart Hunter, secretary and treasurer of the company, will go to Lexington shortly after the first of the year to take charge of the office there.

Went to post at 2:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Joe Goss ran to his best form, came to the outside when entering the homestretch and fought it out with Frank Bell through the last furlong and hung on gamely. Hands Across came through next to the inner rail at the turn into the homestretch, finished fast and was gaining on the winner at the end. Frank Bell showed his usual speed, but tired at the end. Ascension tired badly in the last furlong. Over Again ran his race. Major Mansir likes a longer route.

Winner—Ch. c, by Sir Modred—Woodford filly (trained by L. Tauber).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Montebank ran the best race he has shown at the meeting. He stumbled when the start came, but quickly recovered and ran in behind Exclamation until on the turn for home, wore Exclamation down in the last furlong and outgamed him in a sharp drive. The latter showed a rare turn of early speed and was under restraint for the first half, but tired when the final drive came. Foresight began slowly, but closed a big gap and finished fast. Short Cake and Ora McKinney showed speed.

Scratched—43210 Overhand, 100; 43198 Sextette, 100.

Winner—B. f, by Escher—Intacta (trained by T. Clare).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Sweet Nell rushed through the field in the first furlong, raced Josette into submission while rounding the far turn and came away almost cantering in the last sixteenth. Josette did her best, but her weight told on her when it came to a hard drive. Latuka began slowly and came wide at the turn into the homestretch, but finished fast. Ithan showed early speed, but was outrun all the way.

Went to post at 3:35. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Fuller rated Witfull along for the first half on the extreme outside, sent her through the field with a fine display of speed in the run down the backstretch and was only cantering in the last quarter. Little Scout was under a drive all of the last furlong and just managed to last long enough to stall off a challenge from Bondage. McIntyre saved ground with the latter at the turn into the backstretch, went around his field at the turn into the homestretch and finished gamely. Tribes Hill was a contender for six furlongs and then dropped out of contention. Aladdin showed early speed, but tired after going a half. Captain Arnold ran well to the stretch, but was tiring at the end. Ethics was outrun all the way.
Scratched—43173 Little Elkin, 102.

BARD BURNS

ADVERTISED LONG SHOT WON.

Again our followers made a bunch of easy money.

MONDAY

we have another grand long shot winner. The price will be from 15 to 25 to 1. This one is the biggest cinch of the year.

TUESDAY A SENSATIONAL KILLING

will be made by the Montana contingent. The trick that's to be cut loose worked a mile over the Oakland track in 1:40 flat. This is good enough to beat any horse in training.

Remember, our consistent regularity of furnishing winners at long odds cannot be excelled.

I hold a strictly confidential position to certain horsemen who are "in the inner circle." My duties require me to remain in Chicago all winter. I receive private advices from New Orleans and California which seldom exceed three a week all told. The horses wired me are to be played around the country by those on the inside. To reliable parties I will furnish these advices in cypher until after the horse I wire has won. Then I expect as my compensation a small percentage of the winnings. On account of the position I hold I can, not afford to use my own name in an advertisement. If you will drop me a line I will explain more fully.

ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT CHARGE

WARNING TO HANDBOOK PATRONS

As there will be no more race results sent over the tickers, the public will have to depend upon information as given out by agents of the different handbooks. Players should do business with reliable agents, as the unreliable ones will be tempted to accept bets on the losers after they receive the winner over the telephone. If a bet is placed late the player should note the exact time and compare with the "off" time in Daily Racing Form, and if you think the result was already known to the layers write a letter, giving name of agent, location and name of agent's principal, and the undersigned will endeavor to adjust the matter.

Winner—Br. c. by Hermene—Complete (trained by J. Arthur).

Went to post at 4:03. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Huzzah was outrun in the first half, but moved up to the leaders while rounding the far turn and came to the outside when entering the homestretch, fought it out with the leaders in the last furlong and got his head in front in the last few strides. De Reszke and Lev Dorsey raced like a team all of the last half, the former prevailing in the last stride. Lev Dorsey showed the most early speed and tired in the stretch, but held on resolutely. Mauser ran a good race, but tired when the stretch drive came.

Scratched—(43198) Class, 93.

Winner—B. h. by King Lee—Kalavala (trained by C. Jenkins).

Went to post at 4:35. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same.

Lee King began slowly and trailed along in the rear for the first half and when he made his run he went up on the extreme outside, joined the leaders at the furlong post and out-gamed Badger when the final drive came and got up in the last few strides. Badger finished well, but was in close quarters in between Lee King and Felix Bard in the last sixteenth. Felix Bard set the pace well in hand and showed a lot of speed, but tired in the last furlong. Past moved up fast while rounding the far turn, but tired in the stretch. Trocadero did not run to his best form and the track was probably too hard for him.

Scratched—43195 Anti Trust, 97.

MESSRS.

Peabody & Sons

During the past week had among their winners Dolly Hayman, advised for a straight plunge and which won galloping at odds of 40 to 1. Among the other good winners were King Croker and Eva Russell, which won at 15 and 8 to 1 respectively. The three horse daily wire has by far exceeded our expectations as to its popularity. As Messrs. Herbert and Alfred Peabody are permanently stationed at New Orleans and Frisco looking after the interest of our horses and army of clients, the racing public can look forward to receiving the best of information during the entire racing season. Three of our own special sleepers will start this coming Christmas week, and a perusal of the entries will reveal nothing as to their identity. Obtain these wires as a sample for Wednesday, Dec. 23, Christmas Day Dec. 25, and Saturday, Dec. 26, and you will have reason to say "Good will to Man." Price of our wires are $2 each or $10 weekly. Register your remittance or telegraph same. The Ballentine method has just closed another successful week, and shows a profit for the six days past of $31.40 on $100 capital with only 5 per cent. at stake. Not a losing day has occurred this season. You follow no one's selections or handicaps. It is strictly an income. Particulars concerning this method, price of which is $5.00, and the Discretionary basis cheerfully furnished. Mr. Arthur Peabody, Jr., will start for the South in the interest of this method, immediately after Jan. 1, this in answer to many inquiries. Address all mail to Suite 202 Stewart Bldg., 280 Broadway, N. Y. Long Distance Telephone, 705 Franklin.

Went to post at 2:05. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving.
Bard Burns ran as if he outclassed his field, and luckily placed from the start, went to the front when straightened for home and won with plenty in reserve. Pat Morrissey is in good form and finished a fast going second. Military practically forced the pace for nearly six furlongs before he succumbed, and right at the end was tiring badly. Evelyn Byrd showed plenty of speed and was evidently short. Mr. Phinizy closed a big gap and is worth remembering. Puss in Boots does not stay well on a muddy track and can do better. Arthur Ray is a pronounced non-stayer. Dotterel favors light weight and a slow, heavy track.

Winner—Br. c, by Atheling—Judy (trained by M. J. Daly).
Went to post at 2:37. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily.
Judge, away in his stride and quickly outrun, was patiently reserved within striking distance, and after a close turn for home and under a vigorous drive, he got up to win in the last stride. Rockaway, inadequately handled and unlucky, was easily best, held on in close attendance upon the leaders to the far turn, where he moved up like a flash on the outside of Lord Wadsworth, which carried him very wide and threw him off his stride. He finally came on with an apparently safe lead when beginning the last furlong, but Kelly was caught napping and threw the race away. Lord Wadsworth is a fast colt and easily outran his field to the stretch, where he bore out and interfered with the favorite, then tired badly. Otto Stifel got away flatfooted and was used up in an early effort to get up to the pacer-maker, after which he failed to stay.

Lurene followed the winner closely to the stretch, where she tired and fell away. Cheny, nearly left, closed a big gap and finished running faster than everything but the winner. Rionda tired all over at the end, after a good display of speed. Bright Moon, away badly, had a rough journey on the outside to the stretch and tired badly.

Went to post at 3:23. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second easily.
Lord Melbourne, very fit, received a lucky and skillful ride, was held in reserve in close attendance on the leaders for seven furlongs, then moved up to the favorite and outstayed him in the stretch run, after a long and sustained drive. Claude was palpably short and this race should fit him for the valuable Christmas Handicap. Daly injudiciously took up the running with him after going the first quarter and held the lead hard held to the stretch, where lack of condition told. Modicum ran a surprisingly good race and was a prominent contender throughout. Badly handled, he lost ground on the last turn and at the end came again with a rush. Major Tenny ran a good race. Incubator, nearly left and badly interfered with, showed a brilliant burst of speed in the first six furlongs and then retired. Veterano was outrun throughout and unexpectedly failed to stay.

Went to post at 3:51. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same.
Burnie Bunton, in rare form and under early pressure to keep within striking distance of Sad Sam, suddenly raced up to and passed him right after being straightened for home, coming away by herself. Sad Sam is a quick beginner and gained enough advantage at the start to get home for second place after a long final drive. Glennevis steadily closed up ground, finished with a rush and ran an extra good race. Peter J., badly handled and unable to stride freely in the going, could never get up into serious contention.

Went to post at 4:17. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same.
Greenock had a rough early journey to the stretch, where he finally won out in a tight fit after a tremendous drive in which Burns' superior skill told. Galanthus crowded to the rear on the first turn, steadily improved his position, closing up at the end like a cyclone and just failed to get up. Cougar ran a superior class race at the weights and held a forward position throughout and finished with a rush. He is a much improved horse but out of place in sprints. El Piloto was always a prominent contender. Constellator is not partial to big weight and was unable to stride freely in the going. Prestolus, nearly left, made up a lot of ground. Elfin King made the running for six furlongs and then tired. Quartre and Captivate followed him closely and also succumbed to the fast pace.
Scratched—43119 Aunt Polly, 114; 43168 Quiet, 114.
Greenock, show, 1 to 3. Galanthus, show, 3 to 1. Cougar, show, 3 to 1.

COAST FORM.

From early last May until the end of October several hundred horses were running at meetings held at Los Angeles, Sacramento, and Petaluma, California, and Seattle, Washington. A number were credited with notable performances. All of these horses will take part in the San Francisco and Los Angeles meetings, and knowledge of their performances is necessary to those who wish to consider intelligently the relative merits of the horses that will be raced at the two cities named. Daily Racing Form has prepared a record of the racing at the two Sacramento meetings, the Petaluma meeting, the Los Angeles October meeting and the long Seattle meeting, and it is now ready for sale at 15 cents.

SHORT CAKE 30, 10, 5.

was my advertised long shot for Saturday, which was just nosed out of third money. Evers was compelled to pull up at the start, otherwise the horse would surely have been in the money. My other good one, Frank Bell, 6 to 5, was just beaten two short heads at the finish. Turfites, my selections rarely finish outside of the money and I am now due to send a number of winning long shots, starting Monday, and now is the time to subscribe.

The WINNING INFORMATION that I impart to my clients from day to day should convince turfites that I am without a peer when it comes to furnishing WINNERS, and that I have the best "inside" line on the horses. My success is due to the fact that I am at the track each morning timing the work-outs of the horses, and noting their condition. My acquaintance with numerous OWNERS, TRAINERS and JOCKEYS enables me to impart to my clients valuable advice from the best inside sources. Remember, I advise but TWO GOOD BETS each day. Below you will find my selections and notice that $5.00 bet straight on each of my TWO DAILY SPECIALS
